Belfast's transformation over the past two decades has been remarkable, but don't take our word for it... Lonely Planet's expert travel panel says Belfast is the top place in the world to visit in 2018, along with the Causeway Coast. Enjoy a city that is home to the 'sensational' Titanic Belfast and full of hip neighbourhoods that are bursting with bars, restaurants and venues to suit all tastes. The Belfast Visitor Guide gives you the insider's view of how to make the most of your time in this dynamic young city.

A raucous party town with a dynamic young population that keeps the city on trend, Belfast will invariably confound expectations. Its transformation from political pariah town to cosmopolitan metropolis continues apace, and as the Northern Irish capital continues to negotiate its relationship with its past, its eyes are firmly on the future.

Exploring Belfast

CITY CENTRE

At the heart of the city centre is Belfast City Hall. Opened in 1906, it hosts a visitor exhibition that tracks the City's history, offers guided tours of the Council Chambers and is home to the Titanic Memorial Garden. After exploring the shops and stores on Donegall Place and Royal Avenue, or the Victorian St George's Market, hunt out the many cool cafes, cosy pubs and tasty restaurants hidden in the entries, streets and avenues.

TOP TIP

As well as sensational shopping at Victoria Square, don't miss taking the lift up to the huge dome to enjoy 360° degree views right across the city.

CATHEDRAL QUARTER

This historic trading quarter is a maze of cobblestoned streets and warehouses that are now home to trendy bars, clubs and restaurants. Visitor attractions include the Metropolitan Arts Centre (the MAC), St Anne's Cathedral, the Oh Yeah Music Centre and the Discover Ulster Scots Centre. Full of colourful street art, the area of town is a buzz with music, entertainment and fun at night.

TOP TIP

Make time for afternoon tea in the luxurious Merchant Hotel to admire the opulent surroundings, huge domed ceiling and Ireland's largest chandelier.

LINEN QUARTER

The area behind Belfast City Hall, where the White Linen Hall once stood, visitors can enjoy the architecture of old linen mills which now house a mix of offices, chic bars and award-winning restaurants - perfectly placed to enjoy pre-theatre dinner and drinks before heading to the Grand Opera House.

TOP TIP

Be sure to visit one of Belfast's highest rooftop bars, The Perch, where you can enjoy cocktails and sangria in the height of summer and hot cider, winter warmer's and blanket's in the winter.

TITANIC QUARTER

Steeped in memories when Belfast was a world centre of maritime trade, ship-building and commerce, the Titanic Quarter is one of World's largest urban waterfront regeneration schemes. Visit or take a tour of the many Titanic related visitor attractions, be wowed by the interactive visitor centre W5, catch a show, concert or ice hockey match at the SSE Arena or enjoy afternoon tea in the opulent Titanic Hotel Belfast.

TOP TIP

Walk in the footsteps of the men who built Titanic with the award-winning Titanic Belfast Discovery Walking Tour, including the beautifully barrel-vaulted Harland & Wolff Drawing Offices where hundreds of ships were designed.

QUEEN'S QUARTER

Home to Queen's University Belfast, the area is abound with tranquil parks and gardens. Come face to face with dinosaurs, get up close with an Egyptian mummy, or marvel at some of the best Irish art, there's plenty to enjoy and loads to love at the Ulster Museum. Stroll through the Victorian Palm House in Botanic Gardens, take in an art-house movie at QFT or enjoy great live music or stand-up comedy at the Empire Music Hall.

TOP TIP

The neighbouring Lisburn Road offers the ultimate designer shopping experience dotted with a selection of cafes, artisan delis, salons and wine bars.

GAELTACHT QUARTER

The focus of Irish language, music and culture is in the west of the city. Many visitors come to see the area's famous political murals and peace wall but there's plenty more to discover. An Chultúrlann, the Quarter's culture and arts centre, contains an excellent restaurant, gift shop, theatre and gallery. Explore Clonard Monastery or enjoy the three mile Divis Summit Trail, a specifically designed loop walk on Divis Mountain with spectacular views over Belfast.

TOP TIP

Drop in to Cumann Chluain Árd where you can be assured of traditional entertainment at its very best with music, craic and ceilidh.

TITANIC CITY

Belfast's Titanic Quarter is steeped in the rich history and tradition of the city's shipbuilding heritage – much of which now stands on reclaimed land built on top of the very shipyards where these ships were built and launched.

Alongside the Titanic and Olympic slipways and Titanic's impressive Edward Dock and Pumphouse, sit high tech developments including the Titanic Exhibition Centre, Public Records Office of NI, and the internationally acclaimed Titanic Studios, home to the Game of Thrones film set.

The jewel in the Quarter's crown, however, is Titanic Belfast. Not only is it an architectural triumph but it houses the world's largest Titanic visitor experience. The six-floor building featuring, nine interpretive and interactive galleries explore the sights, sounds, smells and stories of Titanic, as well as the City and people who made her.

Located beside the Titanic Slipways, the Harland and Wolff Drawing Offices (now the Titanic Hotel Belfast) and Hamilton Graving Dock – the very place where Titanic was designed, built and launched in 1912. Since opening in 2012, Titanic Belfast has welcomed over 4 million visitors from over 145 countries and was crowned 'World's Leading Tourist Attraction' at the World Travel Awards in 2016.

It's not hard to see why: on entering, visitors can step back in time learn about the thriving industries and exciting design innovations that led to the creation of RMS Titanic - the largest and most luxurious ship in the world in Belfast before passing through the original Harland & Wolff gates to continue their journey to the Shipyard and the dark ride that uses special effects, animations and full-scale reconstructions to recreate the reality of shipbuilding in the early 1900s.

There's not much time to catch your breath, as you're greeted with a panoramic eagle's eye view of the actual slipways on which both the Titanic and the Olympic once rested as well as experience the excitement of launch day in 1911. Visitors can view the life size plan of Titanic's Promenade Deck, outlining where the liner's lifeboats and funnels and benches on board would have been.

Then it's all aboard to experience an eclectic range of exhibits, models, interactive databases and elaborate computer generated imagery which illustrate the ship's opulent fit-out including exact replicas of the cabins, and journeys through the dining areas, the ship's engine rooms, working interiors and deck promenade, where you can see and hear the oceans and feel the engines rumbling.

Pay tribute to the loss of this magnificent ship and the 1,500 men, women and children who lost their lives on her tragic maiden voyage, experience the aftermath, the inquiries and the sensational news reports of the time. The story is then brought up to the present day with the discovery of the wreck and into the future with live links to contemporary undersea exploration.

At the end of your visit you can browse the extensive Titanic Store which offers an exclusive range of clothing, gifts and unique memorabilia. Enjoy a light bite in the Galley Café, a meal in Bistro 401 or if you're visiting on a Sunday then indulge yourself with a luxury Afternoon Tea by the Grand Staircase in the Titanic Suite.

More to Explore

The stunning new Titanic Hotel Belfast is located in the former headquarters of Harland & Wolff, known locally as the Drawing Offices. Drop in for a drink or afternoon tea in the bright and airy Harland Bar or take a heritage tour to discover the historic features throughout the hotel, such as the old Telephone Exchange, which received the first alert that the Titanic had struck an iceberg.

The Dock Café is an 'honesty box' café, so you pay whatever you think is a fair price. Here you'll find an ever-expanding collection of quirky pieces of history from the Belfast docks: Titanic memorabilia, models and unique pictures of shipyard life, and artefacts from the lovely old H&W Drawing Offices.

Nestled underneath the Samson and Goliath cranes, you'll find 'Cast and Crew', serving up great food for dine in or takeaway, with a superb selection of casual breakfast and lunch dishes on offer.

TITANIC TIPS

SS Nomadic

SS Nomadic is the last remaining White Star Line vessel and is the biggest Titanic artefact in the world. Built by Harland and Wolff in 1911, it served as the tender ship for Titanic on her maiden voyage, carrying first and second class passengers from the port of Cherbourg to the ship. The vessel also served in World War I and II, as well as luxury liners Queen Mary and the Queen Elizabeth. Now restored to her former glory, SS Nomadic is open to the public as a fascinating visitor attraction with an on-board museum, exhibition and education areas.

Wee Tram Tours

The Wee Tram is a fun way to see all the sights of Titanic's historic shipyard. Travelling in carriages based on the funky red-and-cream tram cars that ran through the shipyard in Titanic's day, passengers get a full guided tour around the docks, and also get up close and personal to the modern shipyard. Highlights inc. Titanic's slipways, HMS Caroline, Titanic Film Studios, Titanic's Dock & Pump House, Samson & Goliath, the Harland & Wolff Drawing Offices, and SS Nomadic, Titanic's 'little sister'.

TITANICa The Exhibition

The Ulster Folk and Transport Museum recreates a Northern Ireland at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries, just at the time when Titanic was conceived, designed and built. After exploring the folk park, discover Titanic artefacts and find out about life aboard through fascinating objects and personal stories of 1912.

BELFAST CATHEDRAL

Pay a visit to this magnificent place of worship at the heart of Belfast's Cathedral Quarter, known locally as St Anne's Cathedral - a treasure trove of art, culture and music. Today, as well as being a sacred place of worship, St Anne's provides a stunning backdrop for concerts, recitals, carol services and other cultural events.

HMS Caroline

HMS Caroline, a World War I Light Battle Cruiser, is the last surviving ship from the Battle of Jutland in 1916.

Step aboard one of Belfast's newest attractions to discover the devastating reality of World War One at sea. Explore the cabins that have been restored as if the crew left the ship yesterday, listen in on the everyday sounds in the Captain's and Senior Officers' cabins and enjoy interactive exhibits throughout the ship.

Soak up the atmosphere as you learn about communication at sea in the Signal School and see if you can crack a code using techniques like semaphore and flags. A visit to the Torpedo School enables visitors to explore naval weaponry and dazzle, learn all about war at sea, create your own dazzle camouflage and evade an enemy attack.

The Virtual Access Suite provides access to remote and hidden areas of HMS Caroline. Learn how the ship works with interactive exhibits and take control of HMS Caroline in the Virtual Bridge. Here visitors will also learn about Caroline's impact in Belfast – her home for over 90 years. The historic spaces on HMS Caroline have been recreated to look as they did in 1916, the year that HMS Caroline was part of one of the largest naval battles in history – the Battle of Jutland.

Walk along the decks and see the ship's replica guns or head to the Navigating Bridge where you can visit the Captain's Sea Cabin. Explore naval weaponry and learn about war at sea while creating dazzle camouflage and evading enemy attack.

The Gaol dates back to 1845 and closed its doors as a working prison in 1996. Uncover 150 years of history with a guided tour of Belfast's most infamous prison.

Crumlin Road Gaol

Built between 1843 and 1845, the County Gaol for Antrim was designed by the renowned architect Charles Lanyon. The black basalt rock prison was modelled on London's Pentonville Prison. Visitors can now take the tour of this nineteenth century Grade 'A' listed building and experience life behind bars.

During its time in service 25,000 people were imprisoned, 17 people were executed, numerous escapes were undertaken and many infamous inmates were detained in it. Learn about when women and children were held within its walls through to the political segregation of republican and loyalist prisoners.

A qualified guide takes visitors through the key areas of the prison including the Governor's Office, the holding cells, execution cell, the graveyard and the underground tunnel linking the Gaol with the Crumlin Road Courthouse.

TOP TIP

After your tour why not stay for a bite to eat at Cuffs Bar and Grill, Belfast's newest and captivating dining experience, in Crumlin Road Gaol.

HOME OF THRONES

HBO's Game of Thrones® is one of the most popular and successful fantasy TV series ever made and it is filmed at a number of locations just outside Belfast. The magical atmosphere captured on film is due to the stunning filming locations chosen for the show, so hop on a tour to get out and explore them.

The mesmerising fantasy lands of Westeros has been created using Northern Ireland's rugged coastlines, historic castles and breath-taking countryside and forests. The dramatic scenery of the Causeway Coast and Glens, and Counties Down, Fermanagh and Armagh form the backdrop of much of the show's action and fans can easily access many of the locations from Belfast or follow in the footsteps of a favourite character.

Some of the filming locations not to be missed and to name but a few include Castle Ward and Tollymore Forest Park (Winterfell), Downhill Beach (Dragstone) and Murlough Bay (Stormlands).

Experience It

There are a number of guided GoT coach tours that depart from Belfast. Meet Winterfell's Master-at-Arms, dress up in character costumes, tour the movie set, and enjoy the thrill of firing live arrows at White Walkers! For more information on tours see: visitbelfast.com/gameofthrones

Doors of Thrones

When the real life Storm Gertrude battered Westeros's 'Kingsroad' in 2016, two of the Dark Hedges' most famous trees were felled. However, nothing is lost and the story continues: the wood was carved into 10 intricately designed doors, each one telling the story of an episode in Game of Thrones season 6. From Cairncastle to the Glens of Antrim, via the Dark Hedges and Cushendun Caves, each door is within reach of a different filming location in Northern Ireland – can you track them all down? Download the 'passport' and explore the Journey of Doors in Northern Ireland for yourself. You'll get a unique stamp at each one that you visit: discovernorthernireland.com/gameofthronesdoors Sit back, relax, and enjoy tunes and tales from Them to Van Morrison, by way of awesome guitar players, traditional and folk, to punk rock and Hollywood soundtracks. Finish up at the Belfast Music exhibition at the Oh Yeah Music Centre in the Cathedral Quarter, dedicated to telling the story of the great achievers of local music.

Traditional Music Trail

Take a walking tour around Belfast's historic Cathedral Quarter led by two professional musicians. Visit some of Belfast's historic pubs where you will be treated to performances of traditional tunes, songs and stories, with a tittle or two along the way.

Bike Tours

Take a bike tour around Belfast and discover a range of attractions and interesting points along the way, or create your own itinerary and hire a Belfast Bike from one of 40 docking stations located across the city centre. It's a great low cost and a convenient way to travel about and get to know the city. There's a great cycling network across the city, including bike friendly trails along the Connswater Greenway, Lagan Towpath and Comber Greenway.

Art Tours

Belfast has become a place where Street Art has flourished, where artists from around the world have come to paint. Devised and led by the local artists who have driven the scene, Belfast's Street Art Tour is a 90 minute, gently paced guide to the ever-changing face of the Cathedral Quarter.

Arts & Culture

Belfast may be small in size, but it's huge in imagination! Explore some of the cool art spaces and creative places waiting to be discovered.

Ulster Museum

Set in the beautiful Botanic Gardens, the Ulster Museum is a treasure house of the past and present with a rich collection of art, history and natural sciences. The impressive galleries are free to visit throughout the year.

Linen Hall Library

The Linen Hall Library is the oldest library in Belfast and the last subscribing library in Ireland, renowned for its unparalleled Irish and Local Studies Collection, ranging from comprehensive holdings of Early Belfast and Ulster printed books to the 250,000 items in the Northern Ireland Political Collection.

The Metropolitan Art Centre

The MAC is Belfast's newest cultural arts hub. Located in the Cathedral Quarter, it offers an eclectic programme of visual art, theatre, dance, family workshops and lots more.

Galleries

Belfast has an impressive array of gallery space, displaying everything from the most contemporary visual art in the Golden Thread Gallery to traditional printmaking techniques showcased in the Belfast Print Workshop. The Naughton Gallery at Queen's features a rolling programme of works from the University's own collection, touring exhibitions and shows by local and international artists.

Late Night Art

On the first Thursday of each month, the city's galleries stay open late and you can explore on foot or on a guided bus tour to experience the ever-changing highlights of Belfast's vibrant visual arts scene.

The Murals

Described as "the world's greatest open-air gallery", the murals of Belfast are a must-see experience for visitors. Artworks range from Republican and Loyalist political statements to colourful celebrations of the city's famous sons and daughters. The Peace Wall that divides two communities in West Belfast is home to a vibrant mix of political murals, graffiti and commissioned public art.

Public Art

Belfast has over 150 pieces of distinctive public art placed across the city – look out for: 'the Big Fish' on Donegall Quay, 'the Beacon of Hope' towering over the River Lagan, and Belfast's largest sculpture 'Rise' on the M1 motorway.

C.S. Lewis Trail

Revisit The Chronicles of Narnia with a walk through CS Lewis Square, a public space commemorating the Belfast-born writer, CS Lewis. This stunning display at the intersection of Comber and Connswater Greenways includes sculptures of Aslan, The White Witch, Tumnus, The Beavers, The Robin and The Stone Table.

Seamus Heaney Home Place

Northern Ireland's Nobel Prize-winning poet, Seamus Heaney, is celebrated with an exhibition space and world-class programme of literary events at HomePlace in Bellaghy.

Cultural Heritage

Belfast has a rich cultural tradition, that celebrates in particular two distinct cultural communities, both of which have made their own contributions to the city's identity.

Even though Ulster and Scotland are just 13 miles apart, the story of the close connections can be hard to find. At the Discover Ulster-Scots Centre in the Cathedral Quarter you can discover thousands of years of history, from the formation of the Giant's Causeway (which links County Antrim with the Western Isles of Scotland) right up to the present day. If you're interested in your ancestry, you can discover more about your Ulster-Scots roots through the free genealogy research point. Find out which heritage trails will lead you down the path to your ancestors and how the Ulster-Scots emigrated around the world to become some of the important world leaders and entrepreneurs in history. The centre is open Monday to Friday from 10am-4pm, with free admission.

There are a wide range of events celebrating Ulster-Scots and Orange heritage throughout the year, including the annual Battle of the Boyne commemorative parade on the 12th of July, Belfast Burns Week in January and the Belfast Tattoo in September.

Dine & Drink

There's nothing like a new city, new restaurants and new culinary experiences to make mouth-watering memories. Belfast offers everything from Michelin star dining to the classic 'Ulster Fry' and the best fish and chips round. Restaurant reviewers have plated up praise for Belfast's food scene.

Dining Out

Belfast has all the right ingredients for coffee, lunch and dinner and is home to some of the most talented chefs in the World. The much coveted Michelin Starred 'Eipic' and 'Ox' have put Belfast on the culinary map, and the finest in local cuisine can also be found at renowned establishments including James Street South, The Muddlers Club, Shu and The Great Room Restaurant to name but a few. Great chefs, superb local produce and great value means Belfast has one of the tastiest food scenes in the UK or Ireland. In the Cathedral Quarter, you'll find a selection of tasty restaurants in Saint Anne's Square, and you'll be spoilt for choice in the city centre with the likes of Mourne Seafood Bar, Home Restaurant, Deanes and Howard Street. The city's diverse cultures are showcased with the very best of Chinese, Indian, Mexican, Spanish, Italian and Japanese food, so there's plenty to choose from.

Markets and More

Belfast is a foodies delight. At the weekend, St George's Market oozes Victorian charm with some of the finest fresh produce, street food as well as local arts and crafts. Stop for brunch or soak up the atmosphere with great live music. Explore amazing delis such as Sawers and Avoca, with their extensive range of high quality local artisan products, and those with a sweet tooth shouldn't miss Co Couture where you can buy locally made award-winning chocolates.

Coffee Stop

Belfast has a vibrant café culture. From local artisan roasters, to incredible independent coffee shops and top class baristas...you'll never be far away from a great handcrafted coffee or a boutique loose leaf blended tea. There are an abundance of coffee shops in Belfast but worth a stop are local chain Clements, Patisserie Valerie beside City Hall and the Gallery on Dublin Road. Pick up a copy of the 'Belfast Coffee Map' to discover a trail of the best speciality coffee providers across the city.

Ginainance

Belfast is experiencing something of a 'Ginainance' with many bars and restaurants across the city offering an entire menu dedicated to this increasingly varied spirit. While you're here, make sure to try the best in our local craft distilled gin. 'Jawbox' is perfect served with ginger ale, mint leaves and a wedge of lime, or 'Shortcross' served with frozen orange ice cubes, fresh mint and elderflower tonic water. You can also take a day trip out of the city to tour these distilleries.

Top Tittle

You'll find whiskey galore in this off-licence cum whiskey museum - the 'Friend at Hand' on Hill Street lovingly charts the history of distilling in Belfast.

With a huge variety of independent retailers, high street names, boutiques, speciality shops and traditional markets, you'll find it here in Belfast.

TOP TIP

Shopping

Compact in size, but uncompromising in choice, Belfast offers shoppers the ultimate retail experience. Find everything you could possibly need under one roof at either Victoria Square or Castle Court; find all the high street names you can think of along Royal Avenue or Donegall Place or hunt out the city's craft shops, vintage stores, independent record shops and second hand books retailers – for designer boutiques and private art galleries, interspersed with delis, wine bars and cafes head to the Lisburn Road.

Ulster University has just opened a new student-led art and design shop. Based in its Belfast campus on York Street the shop will showcase bespoke pieces of hand-crafted art by a wide range of students and alumni.

Sport & Activities

Watching and playing sports is an important part of culture in Belfast. The city has several notable sports teams playing a diverse variety of sports including football, rugby, traditional Irish Gaelic games, and North American sports such as ice hockey and basketball. The Belfast Marathon is run annually on May Day.

Spectate

No matter what time of year you come to Belfast, there should be some top sporting action to enjoy. Ulster Rugby plays regularly at the Kingspan Stadium competing in both the PRO14 and European Champions Cup from September to April. Soccer fans can catch a local game played at football grounds and stadiums across the city or keep an eye out for the Northern Ireland international team matches. The Belfast Giants ice hockey team promises a night of fast and furious action, playing home games regularly at the SSE Arena between August and April. If you fancy a day at the races, take a short trip to Down Royal with a variety of horse racing festivals and meetings taking place throughout the year or Drumbo Park provides weekly greyhound racing nights in an electric atmosphere. Gaelic Football, Hurling and Camogie are fast paced action sports with games taking place in counties throughout the island of Ireland between February and October.

Take Part

Prefer to take part in the action instead? Belfast offers many different opportunities to add a thrilling twist to your city break, from zip wiring to canoeing, archery to orienteering and water sports to mountain biking. Check out one of the many outdoor activity centres to create your urban adventure.

Stretch your legs and see the city from up high with a hike up Black Mountain or the iconic Cave Hill, and enjoy the fresh air, history, nature and fantastic city views, or you can choose from a variety of short or long walking trails in public parks and gardens blooming in colour or peaceful canal side towpaths, there's something to suit everyone. Up for a challenge? Sign up to the annual Belfast City Marathon in May or the Half Marathon in September and take to the streets with thousands of participants from all around the world.

If you prefer life on two wheels rather than two feet, Belfast is very bike friendly, with plenty of riverside cycle trails to explore at your leisure or take a guided bike tour to learn about the city while you peddle. The Belfast Bikes scheme offers easy cycle hire at over 40 docking stations around the city centre.

Made for Golf

Northern Ireland has found a new, superstar status in the world of golf during the past couple of years, aided by Rory McIlroy, Graeme McDowell and Darren Clarke. Not only does Northern Ireland produce golf champions, it also boasts an enviable collection of some of the world's very best golf courses. Belfast itself boasts fourteen courses and golf centres within the city's boundary, while the world renowned links courses of Royal County Down and Royal Portrush are just over an hour's drive away.

Family Fun

Belfast is a great holiday destination with plenty of attractions for the young, and not so young, in the city and beyond.

Go wild at Belfast Zoo with spectacular wildlife, fun feeding times and trails to follow, as well as panoramic views across Belfast. Get up close and cuddle the little animals at Streamvale or the Ark Open Farms, visit Ireland's largest collection of native and exotic water-birds at Castle Espie or view birds and wildlife from all over the world at Belfast's Window on Wildlife.

If prehistoric beasts are of more interest, head over to the Ulster Museum, with its interactive learning zones full of great activities to keep the kids happy. The Odyssey Pavilion provides some wet weather respite with a whole host of entertainment under one roof – find W5 discovery centre, bowling alleys, cinemas and, if the Giants are playing at home, end-to-end ice hockey matches. Nearby you can learn about the city's maritime heritage at SS Nomadic, HMS Caroline and Titanic Belfast, which are all family-friendly.

Experience life under the sea at Exploris Aquarium, choose from trampolining, high ropes courses or indoor skiing at We Are Vertigo or they can get their skates on at Dundonald Ice Bowl. Visit the Ulster Folk and Transport Museum, which has one of the best rail galleries in Europe and also allows visitors to experience what life would have been like 100 years ago in its outdoor folk park. Or venture out of the city to enjoy a wealth of National Trust properties with glorious grounds and gardens to explore and plenty of family events on offer throughout the year.

After Dark

Belfast city does not disappoint when it comes to a great night out on the town, with a fantastic theatre scene, superb live music venues, an abundance of smart and stylish bars, comedy nights, big screen sports, nightclubs and gay venues, there's something for everyone!

Theatre & Performing Arts

Belfast's entertainment scene attracts a combination of big-name stars while continuing to develop top home-grown talent. There are many theatres, cinemas and art centres scattered throughout the city, which stage regular theatrical, musical and literary events, as well as premieres, film festivals, talks and debates.

Check out fantastic touring west end productions at the historic Grand Opera House (1895), enjoy the tranquil river views as well as superb local productions at the stunning Lyric Theatre in the Queen's Quarter or enjoy a mixed programme of theatre, music, dance and visual art at the Metropolitan Arts Centre (MAC) in the Cathedral Quarter. The Ulster Hall (1862) in the Linen Quarter is home to the Ulster Orchestra as well as offering a programme full of all genres of music and a regular comedy club. The Belfast Waterfront has stunning city and river views and provides a fantastic programme offering everything from pop and rock concerts to comedy, theatre, ballet, dance and much more. In Titanic Quarter, the SSE Arena is not only home to the Belfast Giants Ice Hockey team, but hosts a top line-up of international performers, concerts and sporting events throughout the year.

Music City

Belfast resonates to an ever-changing soundtrack of live music and you're guaranteed to find something musical to enjoy on your visit here, whether it's toe-tapping traditional Irish music in one of our historic pubs, a standing room only gig in one of our top live music venues or an evening of soothing jazz or classical music. Belfast has been the birthplace, spiritual home, inspiration and venue extraordinaire for musicians past and present in every genre, including 1950's songstress Ruby Murray, the legendary Van Morrison, rock guitarist Gary Moore and pop super group Snow Patrol. Belfast's musical legacy is still alive and kicking today, with a stellar line up of international acts and up and coming local talent playing at a wide range of venues across the city on a nightly basis.

Pubs & Clubs

The Cathedral Quarter is full of character and one of the most enjoyable places to explore on a night out, with a mixture of bars, restaurants, theatre and live music, hidden along cobblestone and fairy light lined alleys. Check out the Duke of York boasting the largest whiskey collection in Ireland, the Dirty Onion in Belfast's oldest building and the John Hewitt for its extensive craft beer selection and diverse range of live music.

Find the best traditional pubs in which to enjoy the perfect pint of Guinness or local craft beer, with original features, a warm atmosphere and friendly welcome there is no better place to relax and enjoy the local 'craic'. Relax in a cosy snug in the Crown Liquor Saloon, an ornate Victorian gin palace dating back to 1826 and one of the best known landmarks in the city, or enjoy a pint in Belfast's oldest pub, Kelly's Cellars.

Love a laugh? Then head to The Empire in the Queen's Quarter for its weekly comedy night. Want to catch a night of big screen sports? Make a stop at the Kitchen Bar in the city centre, Lavery's in Queens' Quarter, or Rockies Sports Bar in the Odyssey Pavilion at Titanic Quarter, or for something a little different, book a table at Cabaret, where you can enjoy a 1920's Hollywood style supper club with a variety of entertaining dinner shows.

For those that want to party on into the small hours, there's a vibrant club scene on offer. Sixty6 features a 4th floor club, a 50s themed drinking lounge, a chic rooftop bar and an intimate cocktail bar, all under one roof, or you'll find the very best in local DJ talent as well as guests from the Marbella and Ibiza scene at Alibi in the Queen's Quarter. Enjoy Asian inspired luxury at Chinawhite or check out Ollie's Club in the basement of the stunning Merchant Hotel, which is one of Belfast's most exclusive nightclubs and plays host to many celebrities, VIPs and socialites.

Whatever nightlife you seek, Belfast is happy to oblige! For more inspiration, see visitbelfast.com

LGBT+

Belfast has a thriving LGBT+ scene across the city, with a dedicated nightlife focus around the Smithfield and Union areas.

Gay venues to take note of include The Kremlin, a Soviet-style venue with extravagant décor. The Tsar Cocktail lounge, the Long Bar and Red Square continues the communist-chic vibe. It offers a huge variety of theme nights, which gives it the reputation of the best gay venue in Ireland.

Union Street is situated in a 19th century shoe factory, is a great place for some fine gastro pub grub with a cool yet comfy vibe. Upstairs, the Green Room Cocktail Lounge is particularly worth a visit, and the adjoining Shoe Factory provides wacky entertainment from Bingo and Karaoke to quizzes and cabaret.

Maverick Bar & Boom Box is a popular and well-loved for its eclectic live music nights and comedy shows. The 'Open Mic' sessions here are unmissable, taking place every Wednesday from 9pm!

Belfast Pride

The annual festival is a 10-day celebration and the largest of its kind on the island of Ireland. Attracting thousands of revellers each summer at the end of July, visitors can enjoy debates, film, music & drama with a spectacular finale city parade and party.

Outburst Queer Arts Festival

Taking place every November, the Outburst Queer Arts Festival is a celebration of queer art and performance in Belfast, showcasing great local and international queer work and supporting the development of queer arts at home and internationally.

TRAVEL TIPS

Communications

The international code for Northern Ireland is 00 44 28. The number for emergency services is 999. This will connect you to the fire brigade, police, ambulance, lifeboat and mountain rescue services. If you need to speak to police about a matter that does not need an immediate urgent response, you should call 101.

Internet and Wi-Fi access is widely available throughout the city. Belfast is one of 10 UK cities set to become a Super-connected City. Plans include city wide access to high speed ultrafast broadband as well as widespread WiFi.

Most post offices are open Monday to Friday 9am to 5.30pm and some are also open on Saturday mornings. The main post office is located on Bridge Street in the city centre.

Banking

Most banks are open Monday – Friday 9am to 5pm. All major credit cards are widely accepted in the city and some shops will accept euro. There are foreign exchange facilities in the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre and various retail outlets across the city.

Tipping

Most restaurants add a discretionary service charge to the bill for parties of six people or more. If this charge is added to your bill, tipping is not necessary. If a service charge is not included, a discretionary tip of 10-15% is customary.

Shopping

Many shops in the city centre follow these opening hours:
Monday - Wednesday: 9am-6pm
Thursday: 9am-9pm
Friday & Saturday: 9am-6pm
Sunday 1pm-6pm
Shopping centres may have extended opening hours midweek.

Stay Safe

Belfast is one of the safest cities in Europe with an extremely low crime rate. However, it is always wise to be sensible and to follow good advice when exploring a new destination. There are a number of Emergency Contact Points in the city which are monitored by the police.

Smoking

Belfast has been a smoke free city since 2006. It is against the law to smoke in bars, restaurants, cafés, hotels, offices, factories and other places of work. The majority of hotels in Belfast no longer offer smoking rooms - please check this when booking your accommodation. Many bars, clubs and restaurants offer outdoor smoking areas.
